DECLARATION BY SUBJECT

Portraits submitted for the Black Swan Prize for Portraiture must be painted "from life". This means that the Artist must have met with the Subject in person, and have agreement from the Subject to pose for a portrait. Photographs may be taken by the Artist and used to complete a portrait in circumstances where the Subject cannot pose for the length of time required to complete the portrait in its entirety. This form is required as evidence that the Artist has met with the Subject in person, and that the Subject has agreed to pose for the portrait or for photos to be used to prepare a portrait. If the Subject has passed away since the Artist and Subject met in person, this form may be signed by the Subject's executor, or other legal representative.

The subject/sitter must provide a written statement that he/she agreed to pose for the portrait.
